

Children's Online Privacy Disclosure

Protecting Your Children's Information

The online financial services offered through Interra Credit Union's website are not designed for or directed toward children under age 13. We do not knowingly solicit or collect data from children, and we do not knowingly market to children online without express parental consent or notification. If we receive online information from any child we will only use the information to respond directly to a child's request. We recognize that protecting children's identities and online privacy is important and that responsibility rests with us and with parents. If you believe your child has provided personally identifiable information to us, please contact us so we can allow you the opportunity to review and delete such information. Please call us at 574.534.2506 or 888.432.2848 or email us at msg@interracu.com.
