

INTERRA'S CLAYTON SHEETS PROMOTED TO AGRIBUSINESS LENDER

June 10, 2021 – Clayton Sheets has been named Agribusiness Lender, Jeremy Bender, Regional Vice President of Agribusiness Services at Interra Credit Union, announced recently. He will assist and provide agribusiness members with the products and services that best fit their operational needs.

Sheets has been with Interra since 2017. Previously, he held a position as a Credit Analyst where he analyzed commercial and agribusiness loan requests ensuring that all documents were reviewed and accurate. Sheets grew up working for various local farmers in dairy farms, grain farms, and even custom hay baling operations. He looks forward to taking this next step in his career and assisting farmers with their financial needs. “I believe farmers are the backbone of America and the foundation of our surrounding communities,” stated Sheets. “At Interra, we have an exceptional agribusiness lending program and are positioned to assist our local farmers in a variety of different ways,” he added. “As a lender, I look forward to being a positive financial resource for the farmers in our local communities,” he concluded.
