Brown began his career at Interra in 2019 as a Consumer Loan Underwriter. Prior to joining Interra, he gained financial experience as a mortgage and consumer lender. “I enjoy working with people and helping them fulfill their financial goals,” said Brown.

Originally from LaGrange, Indiana, Brown is a graduate from Lakeland High School. After graduating from Wallace State Community College in Hanceville, Alabama, he returned to the Hoosier state. He currently resides in Shipshewana, Indiana with his wife, Melinda, and two sons. “LaGrange County is home for me, and I am passionate about serving in my community,” Brown concluded.

Interra, headquartered in Goshen, was chartered in 1932 and has assets of $1.3 billion. The credit union’s field of membership spans 18 counties in northern Indiana, with more than 300 full and part-time employees serving nearly 85,000 members. Interra currently operates 15 offices in Elkhart, Kosciusko, LaGrange, Marshall and Noble counties in Indiana. A 16th office is set to open in LaGrange in early 2021. Interra also serves its members with a suite of robust electronic services at interracu.com.
