

INTERRA CREDIT UNION HOLDS ANNUAL DO WELL TO DO GOOD DAY™

October 19, 2022 – As part of Interra Credit Union’s Do Well To Do Good™ vision, the credit union recently held their annual staff volunteer day on Monday, October 10th.

On the credit union’s third annual Do Well To Do Good™ Day, staff members had the opportunity to ignite their spark within and assist the community in a variety of ways. “It always amazes me how Interra staff are so committed to offer their time to make a difference in our local communities,” stated Amy Sink, CEO of Interra Credit Union. “Lives are changed when we take a few minutes to offer our time, treasure and talents in order to assist our local non-profit partners,” she added.

All staff gathered at the Elkhart County 4-H Fairgrounds for a morning presentation followed by food trucks and time together, before dispersing into the credit union’s local communities to serve. Interra had nearly 300 staff members provide roughly 1,200 volunteer hours while serving 32 organizations in the five counties of Elkhart, Kosciusko, LaGrange, Marshall and Noble on this day. Staff assisted these organizations in a variety of ways including but not limited to; building bunk beds, outside painting and general maintenance repairs and needs, stocking shelves for local food pantries, reading and mentoring to children at various schools, putting together baskets with essential items to support our troops and more. “Partners like Interra Credit Union allow us to fulfill a significant need in our local communities,” stated Jenny Sager, Chapter Co-President of Sleep In Heavenly Peace of Elkhart County. “Our mission is to ensure no child sleeps on the floor and the Interra team plays a part in driving out that mission,” she added.

Interra partnered with Acts of Service through the Community Foundation of Elkhart County to secure organizations in the communities the credit union serves. The credit union worked alongside the following entities: Blue Star Mothers, Boys & Girls Club (Bremen Club), Boys & Girls Club (Nappanee Club), Concord Little League, Dustin’s Place, Elijah Haven, Elkhart County 4-H Fairgrounds, Fairfield Community Schools (Benton Elementary, Millersburg Elementary/Middle School, New Paris Elementary, and Fairfield Jr. Sr. High), Girls on the Run (popsicle tracker making), Goshen Community Schools (Chamberlain Elementary, Chandler Elementary, Model Elementary, Parkside Elementary, Prairieview Elementary, Waterford Elementary, West Goshen Elementary, and Goshen Intermediate), Habitat for Humanity of LaGrange County, Lakeland Youth Center, Lighthouse Daycare & Learning Center, Middlebury School Corporation (Jefferson Elementary, Middlebury Elementary, Orchard View Elementary, and York Elementary), Northern Food Bank of Indiana (card making), Sleep In Heavenly Peace, Syracuse Food Pantry, The Window, and Westview School Corporation.

Interra Credit Union, headquartered in Goshen, was chartered in 1932 and has assets of $1.6 billion. The credit union’s field of membership spans 18 counties in northern Indiana, with more than 300 full and part-time employees serving more than 91,000 members. Interra currently operates 16 offices in Elkhart, Kosciusko, LaGrange, Marshall, and Noble counties in Indiana and via a suite of robust electronic services at interracu.com.
