

ERLENWEIN NAMED BUSINESS LENDER FOR INTERRA CREDIT UNION

April 7, 2022 – Eric Erlenwein has been named Business Lender, announced Randy Lehman, Regional Vice President, Business Lending Manager at Interra Credit Union. In this role, Erlenwein will serve current business relationships in the Syracuse community.

Erlenwein has a long history with the credit union. He became the first loan collector in 2001 where he developed and implemented collection policies, procedures and structured an effective collections department. He also led the Syracuse office retail team as the Branch Manager from 2015-2018.

In 2018, Erlenwein was named Chief Financial Officer for a production facility in New Paris, Indiana, until the company's sale. Erlenwein has experience in management, human resources, and relationship building. He looks forward to rejoining the credit union and serving its business membership. "I am really excited to be rejoining the Interra team," stated Erlenwein. "The credit union is a strong organization that truly cares for their employees, members, and the communities in which it serves," he added. "I have maintained strong relationships with business partners and members alike over the years and look forward to serving them again with their financial needs."
