

HOLLY NAPIER JOINS INTERRA INVESTMENTS

January 21, 2021 – Holly Napier joins Interra Credit Union as Associate Financial Advisor, Brandon Yoder, Vice President of Wealth Services, announced recently. In this role, Napier will assist members with identifying their investment needs and help them achieve their financial goals.

“Interra is all-around the perfect institution for investments,” Napier stated. “We are able to competitively offer members with products and services they would find in a big city,” she said. “Offering competitive products and services and staying grounded, provides the hometown feel and experience Interra is known for,” added Napier. Napier looks forward to channeling her passion for helping others through this role. “I want to empower members and assist them with making wise financial goals that fit their needs and budget,” concluded Napier.
