

IAN KING NAMED BUSINESS LENDER FOR INTERRA CREDIT UNION

January 27, 2023 – Ian King has been named Business Lender, announced Randy Lehman, Regional Vice President Business Lending Manager for Interra Credit Union. In this role, he will build new business relationships while maintaining existing partnerships in the communities the credit union serves.

King comes to Interra with several years of financial experience in the realms of Commercial, Mortgage, and Consumer Lending. He looks forward to applying his industry knowledge at the credit union. “It’s important to listen to the member in order to provide the proper lending solutions they need,” said King. “I take pride in doing that. Plus, Interra is very active in the local communities it serves,” he continued. “The credit union is always contributing in order to better local businesses and community members.”
