

Interra Credit Union Adds Eric Stoneburner to the Agribusiness Lending Department

IMMEDIATE RELEASE, May 27, 2025 – Jeremy Bender, Vice President, Manager Agribusiness Lending, is proud to add Eric Stoneburner to the Agribusiness Lending Department as an Agribusiness Lender. With over a decade of hands-on experience in agricultural consulting and a deep understanding of the farming industry, Stoneburner brings a unique blend of technical expertise and relationship-driven service to Interra.

In his new role, Stoneburner will serve the agribusiness lending needs of agricultural and rural enterprises across the region. The position aligns perfectly with his personal mission of helping the agricultural community thrive.

"I'm excited to bring my experience and background into this role to support our local farmers and business owners," said Stoneburner. "My professional goal is to build honest and lasting relationships that help our members succeed."

His knowledge of the agricultural landscape, combined with a member-first mindset, will enhance Interra's ability to provide tailored financial solutions to businesses that are the backbone of the community.

Stoneburner holds a Bachelor of Science in Biology with a focus on soil science and agronomy, providing a strong foundation for the work ahead. Over the past 10 years, he has worked closely with large farms across Michigan, offering consultation services in nutrient management, farm expansion planning, governmental permitting, and Anaerobic Digester implementation. Stoneburner's efforts have directly supported farms in navigating complex environmental regulations and sustainability programs, including Michigan's Right to Farm program.
