

Interra Credit Union Hires Will Maule, Branch Manager, Syracuse

IMMEDIATE RELEASE, February 23, 2026 – Interra is proud to announce the hiring of Will Maule as Branch Manager in Syracuse. As Branch Manager, Will is set to oversee the branch team and serve Interra members and the community in Syracuse, Indiana. Will is a community driven person that has deep ties growing up in the region and serving as the high school assistant golf coach. Moreover, he serves on the North Webster chamber and is involved in Syracuse Rotary.

In this role, Will shared his excitement and expectations are to “make the Syracuse branch a ‘go to’ in the community and to get directly involved with the community needs.” As a leader at Interra, Will looks forward to maximizing his impact on those around him and developing the team to maximize their potential.

Throughout his career, Will has achieved numerous milestones that reflect his dedication to serving others. In the past, he has made partner at West Point Finance, has been recognized for division sales, annuity investments, and overall sales.

Will lives in Syracuse with his fiancé, Amy, and kids: Natalie, Kobe, Hayden, Sophia, and Maverick. In his free time, he can be found playing rounds of golf or educating people through 1812 war reenactments.
