"I am honored for the opportunity to build on Interra's strong culture and further position the organization to be an employer of choice across the region," Koontz said. "By partnering closely with our leaders and listening to our employees, we can implement innovative HR strategies that attract top talent, support our teams and drive Interra's long-term success."

Koontz began her career in the healthcare industry before transitioning into Human Resources leadership roles within the agriculture, construction and engineering, and financial services sectors. At Interra, she has made significant contributions by building trusted relationships at all levels of the organization. She has led her team in automating processes, streamlining operations, and improving efficiency across the organization, all while fostering strong rapport and trust.

Koontz holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Human Resources from Western Michigan University and is certified as a SHRM-CP (Society for Human Resource Management - Certified Professional).

Outside of work, Koontz resides in Sturgis, Michigan, with her husband, Jay, and two adult daughters, Olivia and Sophia. She enjoys attending live music events, following sports, and spending time at the lake with family and friends during the summer.
