

INTERRA WRAPS UP 32nd HOMETOWN GIVING

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 27, 2026 – Interra Credit Union is proud to announce the success of its 32nd Annual Hometown Giving campaign, which raised $43,577 dollars to support more than 40 local non-profit organizations. The campaign, powered by the generosity of Interra employees and community members, continues to make a meaningful difference for individuals and families across the region.

“For 32 years, Hometown Giving has reflected who we are as an organization,” said Amy Sink, CEO of Interra Credit Union. “Our employees and members consistently show up for their communities, and this year was no exception. Their kindness helps ensure vital services continue for those who need them most.”

Funds raised support a variety of local needs, including food assistance, housing support, education and youth programs, healthcare services, and holiday gifts for 37 Angel Tree organizations.

“Hometown Giving reminds us that small acts of generosity can create big change,” added Sink. “We are grateful for every person who contributed to making this year’s campaign another success.”

Interra remains committed to its long-standing Vision of Do Well To Do Good and looks forward to continuing the Hometown Giving tradition in the years ahead.
