

JACOB HOGAN JOINS INTERRA'S AGRIBUSINESS TEAM

July 12, 2021 – Jacob Hogan has been named Agribusiness Lender, Jeremy Bender, Regional Vice President of Agribusiness Services at Interra Credit Union, announced recently. Hogan will assist and support agribusiness members in fulfilling their financial needs with lending and product expertise.

Hogan brings a wealth of agricultural experience to the credit union. He currently serves as a Conservation Consultant for Steward Link LLC, a technical service provider for the USDA. Hogan is also a certified part 107 sUAS pilot who focuses on precision agriculture and mapping applications. He looks forward to utilizing his knowledge in the industry to best assist agribusiness members with their needs. “At Interra, our biggest asset is that we are community focused and are an essential resource to our members financial well-being,” stated Hogan. “I know the struggle farmers face on a daily basis,” he added. “My goal is to help our local farmers achieve financial freedom through the products and services that best suit their needs.”

Jacob Hogan

Originally from Benton County, Indiana, Hogan received a bachelor's degree in Biology from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. He currently resides in North Liberty, Indiana with his wife and son.

Interra, headquartered in Goshen, was chartered in 1932 and has assets of $1.5 billion. The credit union's field of membership spans 18 counties in northern Indiana, with more than 300 full and part-time employees serving more than 85,000 members. Interra currently operates 16 offices in Elkhart, Kosciusko, LaGrange, Marshall and Noble counties in Indiana and via a suite of robust electronic services at interracu.com.

#

For more information, contact Meegan D. Siegwarth, Vice President of Marketing meegans@interracu.com or 574-534-2506 ext. 7159