

INTERRA NAMES BUSINESS LENDER

October 14, 2019 – Kyle Revella has been promoted to the position of Business Lender at Interra Credit Union, Goshen, Mike Blosser, Senior Vice President of Commercial Services, announced recently. He will serve members in the Goshen, New Paris, Millersburg, Syracuse, Ligonier and Topeka markets, working out of the corporate office in downtown Goshen.

After graduating from college, Revella joined the Interra staff in 2014 and has gained experience in a variety of positions, most recently as a small business lender for nearly three years. “I look forward to providing an excellent member experience, building long-lasting relationships in the markets I serve,” he said.

Revella is a life-long Elkhart County resident and graduated from Bethel University, Mishawka, where he was a four-year student athlete. He serves on the Executive Committee of both LaCasa Help-House and the Elkhart County Young Professionals.
