

KALLIE SCHUETZ JOINS INTERRA MORTGAGE STAFF

March 16, 2020 – Kallie Schuetz has joined the Interra Mortgage staff as a mortgage loan advisor, Ron Cannon, Vice President of Mortgage Lending, announced recently. She will serve members with all types of residential purchase and refinance loans – conventional, construction, FHA and USDA programs.

A long-time Interra Credit Union employee, Schuetz began her career in 2006 working as a teller and call center representative. Professionally, she's held other positions in the company including in credit card services, project management and digital marketing. Headquartered in Goshen, Schuetz will serve members in a variety of markets as an external originator. She will develop relationships with realtors, builders and other referral sources. "Kallie has the personality to make anyone feel comfortable while serving the needs of our members," noted Cannon.
