

INTERRA CREDIT UNION DONATES TO THE NEW LAGRANGE BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL COMPLEX

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 27, 2021 – Interra Credit Union has committed $10,000 to the development of the new LaGrange Baseball and Softball Complex that is anticipated to open summer of 2022. “LaGrange Baseball and Softball League couldn’t be more excited for our recent partnership with Interra,” stated Brett Bateman, President of the LaGrange Baseball and Softball League. “We’re glad to see we are all in this project together,” he added.

“Interra is proud of this opportunity to be invested in a project that supports the youth in LaGrange county,” stated Joel Richard, Senior Vice President of Member Experience for Interra. “In conversations with project leaders, it is clear that this initiative will benefit everyone involved in the youth baseball and softball programs,” he added. “Partnerships, such as this, align perfectly with Interra’s vision to Do Well To Do Good™ for our members, employees and communities,” he concluded.

Interra Credit Union recently made a $10,000 donation to help build the new LaGrange Baseball and Softball Complex. (L-R): Interra Senior Vice President Joel Richard, LaGrange Baseball & Softball League President Brett Bateman and Treasurer Melissa Bateman, Interra LaGrange Branch Manager Haley Nickell, Interra Mortgage Loan Originator Gina Champion.
