

Duane Wilcoxson Promoted at Interra

Duane Wilcoxson has been promoted to Chief Information Officer at Interra Credit Union, Goshen, in addition to his position as Senior Vice President, Amy Sink, CEO, announced recently. In his new role, effective January 1, 2018, Wilcoxson will lead the development of Interra's branch operations, e-services, information technology and project management teams.

He joined Interra in November, 2016, as Senior Vice President of Technology. Wilcoxson's professional background includes more than 19 years in the technology industry, of which the last 14 years have been within the credit union industry.

A native of Chesaning, Michigan, Interra's Chief Information Officer earned a bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, with majors in accounting and management information systems, and later, a master's degree in business administration from Indiana University. In addition, he received a Certificate in Executive Management from the University of Notre Dame.

