

JENNIFER LEHMAN JOINS INTERRA MORTGAGE STAFF

Jennifer Lehman has joined Interra Mortgage as an originator, Rob Spencer, vice president of mortgage lending, announced recently. She brings with her almost ten years of experience in the financial services and mortgage fields.

In her new position, Lehman assists members and potential members with their mortgage lending needs, including purchases, construction loans and refinances. Her office is at the credit union's CR 17 office in Elkhart, and she will also work out of the Osceola office, serving members throughout north central Indiana. "Jen comes to Interra with the experience and commitment to meet our members' home financing needs," Andy Harlow, mortgage sales manager, said.

"Interra has a wonderful reputation in the community," the new originator pointed out. "I am so excited to be part of this great team, and look forward to help members achieve their financial goals through homeownership, whether for the first time, or as they expand or build a dream home."

Lehman has lived and worked in Elkhart County all her life, residing in Wakarusa with her husband and three children. She volunteers with United Way of Elkhart County, and serves as a member of the Community Impact Funding Panel.

02.26.18

